The Holy Martyrs Menas, Hermogenes, and EUGRAPHUS

Saint Menas was sent by the emperor Maximian from Athens to Alexandria to suppress the riots that had arisen between the Christians and the pagans. Distinguished for his gift of eloquence, Menas instead openly began to preach the Christian Faith and he converted many pagans to Christ. Learning of this, Maximian sent Hermogenes to Alexandria to place the saints on trial. Moreover, he gave orders to purge the city of Christians.

Hermogenes, although he was a pagan, was distinguished by his reverent bearing. And struck by the endurance of Saint Menas under torture and by his miraculous healing after the cruel torments, he also came to believe in Christ. Maximian himself then arrived in Alexandria. Neither the astonishing stoic endurance of Saints Menas and Hermogenes under torture, nor even the miracles manifested by God in this city, mollified the emperor. Instead, they vexed him all the more. The emperor personally stabbed Saint EUGRAPHUS, the secretary of Saint Menas, and then gave orders to behead the holy Martyrs Menas and Hermogenes.

The relics of the holy martyrs, cast into the sea in an iron chest, were afterwards found and transferred to Constantinople in the ninth century. The emperor Justinian built a church in the name of the holy Martyr Menas of Alexandria. Saint Joseph the Hymnographer composed a Canon in honor of these holy martyrs.

Troparion – Tone 2 (Resurrection)

When Thou didst descend to death, O Life Immortal, /
Thou didst slay Hades with the splendor of Thy Godhead! /
And when from the depths Thou didst raise the dead, /
All the powers of heaven cried out: ///
O Giver of Life! Christ our God! Glory to Thee!

Troparion – Tone 8 (Martyrs)

Having mortified the ragings of the fiery passions, O martyrs of Christ, /
You received the grace to heal the sick and work wonders both in this life and after death. /
For it is wondrous indeed that your naked bones should manifest such miracles. ///
Therefore, let us glorify our Creator and only God!

Kontakion – Tone 2 (Resurrection)

Hades became afraid, O Almighty Savior, /
Seeing the miracle of Thy Resurrection from the tomb! /
The dead arose! Creation, with Adam, beheld this and rejoiced with Thee, ///
And the world, O my Savior, praises Thee forever.

Kontakion – Tone 4 (Martyrs)

At the melodious sound of thy words, O Menas, /
Hermogenes was led up from the depths of perdition and set upon the rock of life; /
And EUGRAPHUS, after denouncing the Emperor, / Was beheaded rejoicing! ///
Earnestly pray now, that all who lovingly honor thee may be saved.

Kontakion – Tone 1 (Martyrs)

Let us rejoice with holy hymns of praise /
In honor of Menas the glorious, /
And his companions EUGRAPHUS and Hermogenes /
For they have honored the Lord and fought for His glory. /
Thus, counted worthy to be among the bodiless angels in heaven ///
They shed down upon us their wondrous miracles.
